Dear Sir / Madam,

RECONSIDERATION OF JUDGMENT: REFUSAL Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013

Employment Judge Dobbie has directed that I reply to the claimant as follows:

"Your application for a reconsideration of the decision and reasons sent to the parties on 30 January 2023 is refused. The application was made more than 14 days after the decision was sent to the parties and you have given no explanation for the delay. The Reasons were sent on 30 January 2023. On 7 February, you wrote to the tribunal requesting 42 days to appeal, without explaining the basis of your wish to appeal. On 21 February 2023, you wrote to the Tribunal (and 54 others) requesting that the Tribunal determine matters it has no jurisdiction to determine, including alleged criminal matters. On 1 March 2023, you wrote to the ET requesting a "retrial". Even if the communications dated 21 February and 1 March 2023 were accepted as an application to the Tribunal to reconsider the judgment, they were out of time. There is no explanation of the need for an extension of time, nor any application to extend the 14-day time limit. Accordingly, insofar as the correspondence amounts to an application for reconsideration under Rule 70, it is refused."

Yours faithfully,

Norma Davis
